To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 16 You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

CAUSE

David Jimenez was sentenced by the U.S. Court in the District of Minnesota to 48 months of confinement. Upon his release from imprisonment, he released to the Eastern District of Washington to serve a 3-year term of supervised release. A transfer of jurisdiction of this case was completed on October 14, 2008. Based on the defendant's prior history of controlled substance use and his instant Federal offense, this officer is respectfully recommending the condition for random drug testing of the defendant during his term of supervised release. This condition was discussed with Mr. Jimenez and he agreed to the modification of his supervision conditions.

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 16 You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.
